About the Tenant

Citgo on Rhode Island Avenue has been a staple in the College Park community for some time. They offer gas and auto services. Tenant offers extremely competitive auto services while offering cost-effective gas beating out many main competitors in the surrounding area. Tenant additionally owns many gas stations and businesses in Maryland and has a high net worth. This is a go to location for the surrounding area of College Park.

About the Area | Situated just outside Washington DC, College Park, Maryland, is a bustling town home to the University of Maryland. Amidst and around the vast campus exists a thriving community that take advantage of the many attractions the town has to offer, such as the numerous local wonders and sites. Of course, all of Washington, D.C.'s attractions, such as Capitol Hill and the National Mall, are also easy to visit since they're only 10 miles away and directly connected via the Green Line of the Metro. The University of Maryland continues to expand and with it so does student housing. As more and more students attend the University, more and more apartment buildings are built with many corporate tenants moving in to take advantage of these new opportunities.
